

BEFORE YOU LEAVE...

LEAVE SOMETHING GOOD BEHIND

Turn your leftover groceries into meals for local families.

BEFORE YOU GO:

-  Gather unopened, nonperishable food
-  Drop it in a Second Helpings bin
-  We will deliver it to local pantries for neighbors in need

Most drop-offs only take 2 minutes.

Hunger has a local address.

Nearly 5,000 people on Hilton Head Island face food insecurity, including many who help make your stay welcoming, beautiful, and memorable.

QUICK. EASY. LOCAL IMPACT.

VACATION ENDS.

YOUR IMPACT DOESN'T HAVE TO.

Instead of throwing away unopened groceries, you can help feed local families right here in the Lowcountry.

Your donation stays on Hilton Head Island, supporting 1,500 neighbors each week through local food pantries, soup kitchens, and family programs.

About Second Helpings

Second Helpings is a nonprofit food rescue organization striving to eliminate hunger in the South Carolina Lowcountry. We collect food that would otherwise end up in landfills and deliver it the same day, free of charge, to local partners serving our neighbors in need.
